

Causal connectives — use mid-sentencetherefore

The cat kept moving; therefore, enemies could not surround it.

so

Danger appeared, so the cat used Slow-Time immediately.

which means

It focused completely, which means danger seemed to slow down.

which is why

Trust comes from inside, which is why this skill is the hardest.

and as a result

It stayed alert, and as a result it spotted the enemy first.

Fronted adverbials — use to start a sentenceAs a result,

As a result, the cat spotted danger before it arrived.

Due to this,

Due to this, enemies struggled to track its movements.

Because of this,

Because of this, the cat reached safety undetected.

By [doing this],

By calming the mind, everything seemed to move more slowly.

When this happens,

When this happens, the cat has more time to react.

In this way,

In this way, the cat escapes without being seen.

Useful verbs for explanationallows allows a cat to pass unseen

requires

requires patience and silence

helps

helps every other skill work enables enables the cat to react faster

results in

results in better decisions

means that means that danger seems to slow

prevents prevents enemies surrounding it leads to

leads to earlier warnings of danger

keeps

keeps the cat one step ahead

Explanation or instructions?✓ Explanation

"Slow-Time allows a cat to slow its reactions."

"This skill enables the cat to dodge attacks."

"Awareness leads to earlier warnings of danger."

"By staying silent, the cat travels unnoticed."

✗ Instructions — avoid

"You should calm your mind and focus."

"Next, move quietly through the shadows."

"Always pay attention to your surroundings."

"Remember to trust yourself at all times."

Structure of each skill section1 Subheading

One word: the name of the skill.

e.g. Open Mind

2 What it is

A sentence explaining what the skill involves.

e.g. Open Mind is the ability to change your approach when things do not go as planned.

3 How it works

Explain the process using a fronted adverbial.

e.g. By looking at problems in different ways, a cat can find solutions others would miss.

4 What happens as a result

Use a causal connective to show the outcome.

e.g. As a result, the cat avoids danger and stays one step ahead.