

Causal connectives — use mid-sentence
therefore It cat kept moving; therefore, enemies could not surround it.
so Danger appeared, so the cat used Slow-Time immediately. which means It focused completely, which means danger seemed to slow down.
which is why Trust comes from inside, which is why this is the hardest skill.
and as a result It stayed alert, and as a result it spotted the enemy first.

Fronted adverbials — use to start a sentence
As a result, As a result, the cat spotted danger before it arrived.
Due to this, Due to this, enemies struggled to track its movements.
Because of this, Because of this, the cat reached safety undetected.
By [doing this], By calming the mind, everything seemed to move more slowly.
When this happens, When this happens, the cat has more time to react.
In this way, In this way, the cat escapes without being seen.

Useful verbs for explanation
allows allows a cat to pass unseen	enables enables the cat to react faster	prevents prevents enemies surrounding it
requires requires patience and silence	results in results in better decisions	leads to leads to earlier warnings
helps helps every other skill work	means that means that danger seems slower	keeps keeps the cat one step ahead

Explanation or instructions?
✓ Explanation	✗ Instructions — avoid
"Slow-Time allows a cat to slow its reactions."	"You should calm your mind and focus."
"This skill enables the cat to dodge attacks."	"Next, move quietly through the shadows."
"Awareness leads to earlier warnings of danger."	"Always pay attention to your surroundings."
"By staying silent, the cat travels unnoticed."	"Remember to trust yourself at all times."

Structure of each skill section
1 Subheading One word: the name of the skill. e.g. Open Mind
2 What it is A sentence explaining what the skill involves. e.g. Open Mind is the ability to change your approach when things do not go as planned.
3 How it works Explain the process using a fronted adverbial. e.g. By looking at problems in different ways, a cat can find solutions others would miss.
4 What happens as a result Use a causal connective to show the outcome. e.g. As a result, the cat avoids danger and stays one step ahead.

Causal connectives — use mid-sentence
therefore It cat kept moving; therefore, enemies could not surround it.
so Danger appeared, so the cat used Slow-Time immediately.
which means It focused completely, which means danger seemed to slow down.
which is why Trust comes from inside, which is why this is the hardest skill.
and as a result It stayed alert, and as a result it spotted the enemy first.

Fronted adverbials — use to start a sentence
As a result, As a result, the cat spotted danger before it arrived.
Due to this, Due to this, enemies struggled to track its movements.
Because of this, Because of this, the cat reached safety undetected.
By [doing this], By calming the mind, everything seemed to move more slowly.
When this happens, When this happens, the cat has more time to react.
In this way, In this way, the cat escapes without being seen.

Useful verbs for explanation
allows allows a cat to pass unseen	enables enables the cat to react faster	prevents prevents enemies surrounding it
requires requires patience and silence	results in results in better decisions	leads to leads to earlier warnings
helps helps every other skill work	means that means that danger seems slower	keeps keeps the cat one step ahead

Explanation or instructions?
✓ Explanation	✗ Instructions — avoid
"Slow-Time allows a cat to slow its reactions."	"You should calm your mind and focus."
"This skill enables the cat to dodge attacks."	"Next, move quietly through the shadows."
"Awareness leads to earlier warnings of danger."	"Always pay attention to your surroundings."
"By staying silent, the cat travels unnoticed."	"Remember to trust yourself at all times."

Structure of each skill section
1 Subheading One word: the name of the skill. e.g. Open Mind
2 What it is A sentence explaining what the skill involves. e.g. Open Mind is the ability to change your approach when things do not go as planned.
3 How it works Explain the process using a fronted adverbial. e.g. By looking at problems in different ways, a cat can find solutions others would miss.
4 What happens as a result Use a causal connective to show the outcome. e.g. As a result, the cat avoids danger and stays one step ahead.